FREEDOM AND COMFORT FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY

This high-performance home has been specifically designed for narrow blocks. Also high on the designers list was to ensure that this home would easily blend with surrounding homes in established suburbs.

With its tremendous street appeal, the secret of the Nova series lies in the privacy of the entertaining areas; and the minimisation of hallways to enable more space in living and bedrooms.

Four large bedrooms plus study and second family room upstairs ensures freedom and comfort for the whole family in this surprisingly spacious home.
