LET THE OUTSIDE IN

The creative use of space and thoughtfully placed windows maximise living areas in this narrow-lot home. Walking into the Bentley, you will notice an abundance of natural light streaming through a double set of sashless windows reaching through a void connecting the upper and lower levels.

Upstairs the home features a lounge area with study nook, master bedroom complete with ensuite and walk-in robe, three large bedrooms and ample storage options. With a striking architecturally designed façade, this home wins for its practicality and warm elegance.
